

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

March 26, 2002

Notice to Public:

Per Clark County Code 6.140.030, the Department of Community Development may charge an hourly rate or actual cost for re-reviews of building plans. This charge applies to all plan review, including structural reviews.

The Department imposes this charge beginning with the third review on any given set of drawings. This charge is also imposed on changes to drawings that require a new review, as well as plans requiring a separate review due to incomplete drawings or information.

Fees incurred need to be paid prior to the issuance of the building permit. Questions regarding the hourly rate, actual costs or when the fee applies may be directed to Lou Adams, Chief Building Official, at (360) 397-2375, extension 2470.